OUR LADY OF SION COLLEGE

Child Safety Code of Conduct

Purpose

Our Lady of Sion College Mission statement calls us to always ‘speak the truth in love’ and compels us to act in the pursuit of ‘justice and truth’. Consistent with our mission, the Our Lady of Sion College community is committed to providing a child safe environment. Our Child Safety Code of Conduct has a specific focus on safeguarding the young people of Our Lady of Sion against sexual, physical, psychological and emotional abuse or neglect. It is intended to complement child protection legislation, school policies/procedures and professional standards, codes or ethics as they apply to staff and personnel.

Expectations

All staff, volunteers, contractors, clergy and College Board members at Our Lady of Sion College are compelled to actively contribute to a school culture that respects its members. As such they are obligated to observe child safe principles and expectations for appropriate behaviour towards and in the company of children, as noted below. All staff, volunteers, contractors, clergy and College Board members at Our Lady of Sion College will be required to sign a declaration that they have been provided with a copy of the Our Lady of Sion Code of Conduct and submit it to the Principal prior to commencing work or when amendments to Code are made. All declarations will be retained by the College.

Acceptable behaviours

All staff, volunteers, contractors, clergy and College Board members are responsible for supporting the safety of children by:

- adhering to the College’s Child Safety policy and upholding the CECV statement of commitment to child safety at all times
- taking all reasonable steps to protect children from abuse
- acting in a manner that sustains a safe, educational and pastoral environment
- treating everyone in the College community with respect by modelling positive and respectful relationships
- promoting the cultural safety, participation and empowerment of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children, and those with culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds
- promoting the safety, participation and empowerment of children with a disability
• ensuring, where practicable, meetings with an individual student or small group of students occur in College meeting rooms, open spaces or classrooms with clear visibility
• understanding all reporting obligations as they relate to mandatory reporting and reporting under the Crimes Act 1958 (Vic)

In the event of an allegation of child abuse being made, the person to whom the allegation is made should:
• listen and respond to the child(ren), whether they are telling you about their safety or the safety of another child
• report any child safety concerns to the College Principal or Deputy Principals
• report any allegations of child abuse to the College Principal or Deputy Principals
• ensure as quickly as possible that the child(ren) are safe
• comply with all reporting obligations as they relate to mandatory reporting and reporting under the Crimes Act 1958 (Vic)

Unacceptable behaviours

All staff, volunteers, contractors, clergy and College Board members must not:
• ignore or disregard any suspected or disclosed child abuse
• develop any ‘special’ relationships with children that could be seen as favouritism (for example, the offering of gifts or special treatment for specific children)
• exhibit behaviours with children which may be construed as unnecessarily physical (for example, inappropriate sitting on laps)
• put children at risk of abuse (for example, by locking doors)
• initiate unnecessary physical contact with children or do things of a personal nature that a child can do for themselves, such as toileting or changing clothes
• engage in open discussions of a mature or adult nature in the presence of children (for example, personal social activities)
• use inappropriate language in the presence of children
• express personal views on cultures, race or sexuality in the presence of children
• discriminate against any child, including because of age, gender, race, culture, vulnerability, sexuality, ethnicity or disability
• have inappropriate contact with a child or their family outside of the College
• use any personal communication channels/device such as a personal email account
• exchange personal contact details such as phone number, social networking sites or personal email addresses
• have any online contact with a child (including by social media, email, instant messaging, etc) or their family unless necessary for example, by providing families with enewsletters or assisting students with their school work
• photograph or video a child without the consent of the parent or guardians
• work with children while under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs
Definitions

Child abuse includes:

- any act committed against a child involving:
  - a sexual offence, or
  - an offence under section 49B(2) of the Crimes Act 1958 (Vic)(grooming)
- the infliction, on a child, of:
